

Kim Yannon has taught elementary and middle general and choral music for 33 years in Watertown and Cheshire, CT. She holds a Bachelor of Music degree in Flute Performance from Western Connecticut State University, a Master of Science degree in Music Education from Central Connecticut State University and a Doctor of Musical Arts degree in Music Education and Pedagogy from The Hartt School, University of Hartford.

Kim has served as Elementary General Music/Conference Chair, In-Service Conference/Professional Development Chair, and President for Connecticut Music Educators Association. Kim's work with CMEA includes government relations and she was involved in the lobbying efforts dealing with Connecticut's certification and high school reform legislation. Her advocacy work includes participating in the founding of Arts Slam, a fine arts advocacy event held at the Capitol.

She has presented numerous workshops in curriculum and child development, assessment, best practices, and the New Core Arts Standards for The National Association for Music Education and CMEA. Kim participated in the NAFME Standards Writing Team for 6-8 General Music and the Standards Review Committee for the Connecticut State Board of Education. She is a founding board member of the Connecticut Alliance for Arts Education. Kim participated in the writing of Responding units in the area of Intermediate Chorus for the NAFME/Library of Congress partnership grant and as Mentor and TEAM Paper Reviewer for the Connecticut and Cheshire Boards of Education.